1. INTRODUCTION

A Simple Introduction to the Montessori Education Method

The Montessori Education Method is a special method of education that was developed by Dr. Maria Montessori. The method was designed to ensure that children are given the right level of education in accordance with their needs. Most of the material for this method came from observations of children's needs from all over the world. Montessori herself decided to create a method that provided children with something that helped them to cultivate their natural learning tendencies. The Method itself is designed to benefit children of any age, and in some cases children are taught in various different age groups. The Method ultimately aims to cultivate a love of learning as well as discovering "materials for development" and cultivating the child's ability to concentrate properly

The Needs of the Child

The child's needs are very important with regards to the Montessori Method. Freedom within certain limits is taught to the child. The environment itself is also designed and prepared in order to give children the correct materials. They will be able to use these materials in order to discover more about them and use their natural tendencies for curiosity. Exposure to different experiences and materials will allow the child to grow in many different ways. This includes mentally, physically and emotionally. The psychological needs of the child are also met. Ultimately, it is the child who decides how they react to certain things and develop their own capabilities. Adults are the ones who help the child get used to and understand the different experiences that the world has to offer.

The Premises of Montessori Education

The first premise of Montessori education is that children are different from one another and, as individuals, they are also different from each other. One of the biggest points that is made is that children have a greater ability to learn and absorb information, one that is greater than that of most adults. Montessori methods also place a high level of importance on the first six years of a child's life. Purposeful work for children is also important, although this kind of purposeful work is usually going to be different from what an adult sees as being "purposeful".

The Montessori Method is about the development of the child and how the child develops through the use of experiences and different techniques that are on offer. Children are all different and will all have different ways of reacting to certain things, so it is a good idea to start your child early if you plan on sending them to a Montessori school. This method will help them to grow and to learn in a unique way that will nurture their natural abilities.

We wish to welcome you and your family to Garden Road Montessori Preschool (GRDM).

About Delicia: Principal

Delicia Moraleda's passion for working with children was ignited when she became the neighbourhood babysitter. Every industry in which she has worked has led her to young children and in 2010 she qualified as a Montessori Directress from the College of Modern Montessori. She has worked with children in different countries and in various environments for 15 years.

Delicia is the founder and Principal of Garden Road Montessori Preschool which opened in 2014 and a mother of 2. Her school caters to children aged 18 months to 6 years old, has 36 children currently enrolled, and manages a team of 7 employees.

Her mission is to live a life that inspires learning spaces which will take children to greater places. In 2017 Delicia hosted the Gauteng SAMA regional meetings.

It is all about the children! The beauty of Montessori lies in sticking to the child's own pace.

Maria Montessori said "Let the children free, encourage them, let them run outside when it's raining, let them remove their shoes when they find a puddle of water, and when the grass of the meadows is damp with dew, let them run on it and trample it with their bare feet, let them rest peacefully when a tree invites them to sleep beneath its shade, let them shout and laugh when the sun wakes them in the morning."

Garden Road Montessori Preschool is honoured that you have chosen our school to nurture, support, and love your child.

Sincerely,
The Montessori Team
